INSTITUTIONAL DISTINCTIVENESS

Introduction:

Access to higher education remains a significant challenge for women around the world. Women face multiple barriers in accessing higher education. These barriers include poverty, social and cultural norms, and a lack of access to quality education. The college is “Breaking Barriers and Building Bridges” by addressing these issues by providing opportunities for underprivileged rural women to access education.

Increased Admissions

One of the most notable achievements of this college has been the significant increase in admissions over the past few years. This can be attributed to a variety of factors, including increased outreach efforts, streamlined application processes, and expanded academic offerings. Specifically, the college has made a concerted effort to reach out to traditionally underserved communities, including rural areas and low-income families, and to provide targeted support to help students navigate the application process.

Scholarships:

One of the most significant barriers that women face when pursuing higher education is the financial burden. The scholarships and financial aid packages to students who demonstrate financial need, making higher education more accessible for women from low-income backgrounds. The college has also partnered with several organizations to provide internships and job opportunities for students, allowing them to earn income while studying and job opportunities for students, allowing them to earn income while studying.

Journey towards Empowering Women with a Social Conscience:

Women empowerment is an essential aspect of social development. Empowering women with a social conscience involves creating awareness among women about their rights, responsibilities, and potential for becoming agents of change in society. The college has been working towards empowering women

Gender Sensitization Programs:

The college conducts gender sensitization activities to create awareness among students about gender issues and to promote gender equality.

The programs aimed to encourage students and staff to respect diversity and promote gender equality.

Activities such as Woman Equality Day, Woman teachers day, International Women's Day, Health and Hygiene and Awareness programs on DISHA, ,

COMMUNITY SERVICE :

Donation drives:

Department of Chemistry, in conjunction with all faculty and staff members, both teaching and non-teaching, embarked on a charitable endeavor. Together, they generously donated essential provisions such as rice and fruits to the Sita Mahalakshmi Voluntary Organization, which caters to the welfare of physically handicapped orphans and elderly individuals in Jangareddygudem.

This act of benevolence was not merely about material contributions; it was accompanied by heartfelt interaction as well. Members of the department spent quality time with the residents of the organization, extending companionship and support beyond the realms of mere donations.

The initiative was graced by the presence of esteemed individuals from our college administration. Dr. N. Prasad Babu, the principal, along with Sri B. Srinivasarao, the vice-principal, and Sri U. Venkatacharyulu, the Chemistry Incharge, demonstrated exemplary leadership by actively participating in the event. They were joined by a dedicated team of faculty members including Dr. M. Madhu, Dr. Ch. Badarinarayana, Dr. Uttam Sagar, T. Jhansi Rani, Ch. Ramadevi, Dr. G. V. Lal, and numerous other teaching and non-teaching staff, alongside compassionate students.

During the gathering, Sri Jayavarapu Shekhar, the organizer, eloquently elucidated the ongoing activities and pressing needs of the organization. His insightful presentation shed light on the challenges faced by the physically handicapped, orphaned, and elderly residents, emphasizing the importance of community support and involvement.

Through this collaborative effort, the Department of Chemistry and its allies exemplified the essence of compassion and solidarity, extending a helping hand to the marginalized members of society. Such acts of kindness not only alleviate immediate needs but also foster a sense of belonging and dignity among those in need, reaffirming the noble values upheld by our academic institution.

BLOOD DONATION CAMP

On December 21, 2022, a blood donation camp was held to celebrate the birthday of Sri. Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy, the Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh. The event was organized by the Red Ribbon Club and the Department of Zoology at CSTS Government Kalasala, Jangareddigudem. The camp was inaugurated by the Principal, Dr. N. Prasad Babu, who praised the blood donors for their noble contribution. A total of 13 students from the college donated blood to the Government Hospital in Jangareddigudem, and an additional 5 students donated blood to the Red Cross Society in Eluru. The Red Ribbon Club coordinator, Sri. V. Hanumanth Rao, along with members Dr. G. Venkata Lal, Smt. T. Jhansi Rani, Smt. R. Vijayadeepika, and the lecturer in Zoology, played key roles in organizing the event. The camp saw active participation from all the teaching and non-teaching staff, as well as the students, contributing to its success. This commendable initiative reflects a strong sense of community and social responsibility, emphasizing the importance of blood donation in saving lives and raising awareness.

EMPOWERING TRIBAL COMMUNITIES THROUGH EDUCATION

In the tribal heartland, CSTS Govt. Kalasala shines as a beacon of hope for indigenous communities, pioneering empowerment through education. With a majority of students from tribal backgrounds, many first-generation learners, the institution is dedicated to uplifting marginalized communities through transformative educational initiatives.

CSTS Govt. Kalasala offers workshops, seminars, and career awareness programs, bridging aspirations with opportunities. Notably, their Group 2 free coaching breaks financial barriers, enhancing students' chances of securing government jobs.

The institution's impact is evident in numerous success stories: students breaking the cycle of limited education, securing coveted government positions, and uplifting their families socio-economically.

What sets CSTS Govt. Kalasala apart is its holistic approach, prioritizing students' overall well-being and fostering awareness of societal opportunities. Located in a tribal area, it addresses systemic barriers to quality education, serving as a catalyst for social change and advocating for tribal rights. In conclusion, CSTS Govt. Kalasala exemplifies education's transformative power, instilling empowerment and agency in marginalized communities. As its students excel and contribute, the institution stands as a beacon of inclusive development and social change.
