CONSOLIDATION REPORT OF A VARIOUS ACADEMIC AND NON - ACCADEMIC COMMITTEES FUNCTIONING DURING 2023-24

The consolidation report for CSTS Government Degree College for the academic year 2023-24 highlights the significant achievements of various academic and non-academic committees.

The Committees played a crucial role in refining the curriculum and enhancing teaching methodologies. They introduced new courses and updated existing ones to reflect current industry trends and student needs. Faculty development programs were actively pursued, including workshops and seminars that improved teaching quality and research output. The committees also focused on evaluating and addressing student performance through regular assessments and feedback mechanisms, resulting in better academic support and personalized learning experiences.

The Committees made notable strides in enriching campus life and managing essential services. They organized a range of extracurricular activities and events that fostered student engagement and personal growth. Additionally, infrastructure improvements were made, including upgrades to campus facilities and resources. These committees also ensured effective student support services, contributing to a supportive and vibrant campus environment.

Overall, the collaborative efforts of these committees have led to enhanced academic performance, improved student satisfaction, and a stronger institutional framework, aligning with the college's mission and strategic goals.
