MACKING OF ECOFRIENDLY VINAYAKA IDOLS

On September 16, 2023, at CSTS Government College in Jangareddygudem, Eluru District, a special event was held in honor of Vinayaka Chavithi Festival, organized by the Department of Botany and Horticulture. As part of this celebration, clay and cow dung Vinayaka idols were made by students and also distributed to both college students and travelers.

The college principal, Dr. Prasad Babu, extended his gratitude to the students for their thoughtful gesture and personally presented the idols to motorists. Dr. N. Prasad Babu, the esteemed principal, emphasized the environmental benefits of using cow dung for making these idols, highlighting that they do not contribute to air pollution. He expressed his satisfaction with the initiative taken by the students and the college's role in organizing such a meaningful program.

This program was made possible through the collaborative efforts of Gosala managers from the village of Jangareddygudem, led by CH Srikanth Garu. They not only provided support but also visited the college to participate in the idol distribution program. Smt. T. Jhansi Rani Lecturer in Botany, Kum. CH. Venkata Lakshmi Lecturer in Horticulture And Smt. R. Vijaya Deepika Lecturer in Zoology are play important role in this event and encourage the students to make the idols. It was heartening to witness the enthusiastic involvement of all teaching and non-teaching staff members of the college, who joined in the distribution of these unique idols while expressing their appreciation for the students who crafted them.
