INVITED TALK BY THE DEPT. OF COMMERCE, CSTS GK, JRG

The dept. of economics in association with the dept. of commerce, cstsgk, jrg conducted an invited talk as interdisciplinary event on 23.02.2023 for the benefit of BA students of 5th semester.

The topic FPO farmer producer organisation has been introduced by the university for 100 marks in the recent times. Achieving a reasonable market price through the formation of FPO amidst the marketing problems of the farmers is key issue in today's context. The students can act as catalysts in the formation of FIG farmer interest groups in every village which further can become a successful FPO and FPC. At this juncture, this guest lecture was arranged to educate the student community of BA programme,

The head of the department of Commerce, Sri Uttam Sagar, delivered a beneficial lecture on Basic Accounting Procedures with practical approach. Smt. K.Rama Devi, lecturer in commerce also delivered a guest lecture on sharing of accounting knowledge to the rural women in the successful management of FPOs in line with DWACRA groups. Ms. Sirisha, lecturer in commerce was also present in the successful completion of the event.

The department of Commerce was very much helpful in creating academic interest and practical solutions for the FPO management. The basic issues like debit, credit, single, double entry systems, book keeping, types of accounts, journal entry, ledger, trial balance, profit and loss account, balance sheet, assets, liabilities etc., were discussed at length and promised students to guide whenever required in further.
