date: 13/8/22

my self T. Bindhu Pavani studying in C.S.T.S govt college.

we visited the court. Eluru road in Jangareddy gudem. It will be an college trip and will help us to gain a better understanding of the things we study theoretically.

Eluru road in court very clean & calm

In the court of law the judges & lawyers are there in the court of law. I will be very grateful to you, I met the judge sir' and telling my wishes to him. students can with discipline and visit the court. the programme Azad ka Amruth mohasthvan was conducted by the court they give a full knowledge about the court of law.

finally the judgement given by judge without any flaws.

My self B. Kiran Kumar and B. Corn (LA) in C.S.T.S Govt Kalarala.

We are celebrate the "AZAD KA
- AMRUTH MAHASTAV" in our College on that day
we visited the regional Court Jangareddykur.

I met the regional Judge madam and telling my wishes to him. The honorable Judge madam felt very happy, madam said student can how to be in society with discipline and I visit the structure of Court.

The structure of Court Room is a hall with a lofty pavilion containing a podium for the honorable Judge. his reader and steno on either side of the same podium.

In the pavilion lower than the Judge in the pavilion they are witness and accused box but according to the information is not used. A Typist sits between two boxes and types the witness statement.

The prosecutors and defense counsel are standing on a bench near the Tepees, between two lawyers the witness and the accused are next to the accused box.

The Navajo court assists the prosecutor standing next to him.

People attending the trial were given seats behind a bench where two lawyers stood.

After the observation of structure of court came back in to the college.
