Action Taken Report for Student Feedback, 2022-23

The curriculum pacing and planning to ensure adequate time allocation for each topic was reviewed. Provided additional resources and support sessions for students who found the pace challenging. A mid-term review system to gauge student understanding and adjust teaching strategies was implemented accordingly. Workshops for faculty to enhance clarity in teaching methods were conducted. Students were encouraged to provide real-time feedback on clarity during lectures to facilitate immediate improvements. Peer observations among faculty to exchange best practices for effective communication were initiated. Training sessions for faculty on integrating advanced teaching models and aids into classroom instruction were organized. New technological tools to enhance teaching effectiveness were explored. The faculty kept involving students in the selection and utilization of teaching aids to better meet learning preferences. Fostered collaboration between faculty and industry experts to bring cutting-edge developments into the curriculum. The curriculum was regularly updated to ensure alignment with the latest advancements in the field. The faculty was encouraged to further diversify teaching methods to cater to different learning styles. A series of workshops on effective teaching methodologies for faculty members were conducted. The frequency of field visits and invite a diverse range of industry experts was increased. A feedback mechanism after each external activity to gauge effectiveness and make necessary improvements was regularly implemented.
