| 4. Brief Note on Activity        | : WHAT IS THE CAUSE OF THEIR EDUCATION DROPOUT |

Economic Challenges: Financial difficulties can make it hard for students to afford tuition, books, and other educational expenses. Additionally, students from low-income families may need to work to support their families, which can interfere with their ability to attend school.

Family Responsibilities: Some students have to take on family responsibilities, such as caring for siblings or working to support their household, which can make continuing their education difficult.

Early marriage: Most of the village peoples dropped their education because of early marriages in present society.

Academic Struggles: Students who find the curriculum challenging or who struggle with learning disabilities without proper support might become discouraged and leave school.

Lack of Engagement: Students, who feel disconnected from their school environment, whether due to poor relationships with peers or teachers, or a lack of interest in the curriculum, might be more likely to drop out.

Health Issues: Physical or mental health issues can impact a student's ability to attend and perform well in school.

Safety and Environment: Unsafe school environments or issues like bullying can contribute to students leaving school.

Socioeconomic Factors: Broader socioeconomic issues, such as living in high-crime areas or facing housing instability, can also affect a student's ability to stay in school.

Educational System Issues: Inequities in the educational system, such as lack of resources or support in underfunded schools, can contribute to higher dropout rates.
