

Chaitanya Godavari Grameen Bank Vigilance Awareness Week

DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY AND HORTICULTURE

As part of Chaitanya Godavari Grameen Bank Vigilance Awareness Week

saplings were planted in the premises of C.S.T.S.Government Degree College in Jangareddygudem under the auspices of Chaitanya Godavari Grameena Bank Jangareddygudem on 2/11/23. Bank vigilance officer E. Rambabu said that this program was organized today in the college premises with the intention of creating awareness from the student level about the eradication of corruption. Speaking on this occasion, Rambabu said that the government, citizens and the private sector should work together to eliminate corruption. He said that honesty and integrity should be adhered to with the highest standards. He asked them to support the fight against corruption. A prime minister has become an obstacle and every citizen and every student has pledged to wear bracelets to eradicate corruption. On this occasion, students, bank staff and teachers have pledged their loyalty to eradicate corruption. Bank Head Office Guntur Vigilance Officers, E. Rambabu, N. Vijay Kumar RM A. Malleswar, Bank Manager Ch. Girish Ku Mar, Government Degree College Principal N. Prasad Babu Bank Staff, Teachers, Students and others participated in large numbers Principal N. Prasad Babu was felicitated by the bank vigilance officials

